

Jarkko Siren
European Commission, Belgium

Jarkko Sirén joined the European Commission in 2009. He is Project Officer in DG Information Society. He is currently working on e-infrastructures with a special focus on data and grid infrastructures. He has previously worked in IT project management and development in the European Commission (DG EAC) and in private sector companies. Jarkko holds a M.A. in Philosophy (1996, Helsinki University).