Make Your Choice

In order to facilitate the production and publication of your article we need further information from you relating to:

- ⌘ Please indicate if you would like to publish your article as open access with our Open Choice option. If so, your article will become freely available online for anyone worldwide and you will be able to easily comply with open access mandates.
- ⌘ Please transfer the copyright, if you do not publish your articles as open access.
- ⌘ Please note: We have some agreements with institutions which cover the article processing charge for Open Choice articles of their affiliated corresponding authors. Please read the specific information when you indicate your affiliation.
- ⌘ Please indicate if you would like to have your figures printed in color.
- ⌘ Please indicate if you would like to order offprints.

Answering the questions on the next few pages will take approximately 10 minutes of your time.

Please note: Be sure to complete the entire process until you get to the confirmation page. The subsequent production of your article depends on the finalization of the MyPublication process.

Please see our FAQ page if you have questions or problems completing the forms.

The screenshot shows the Springer website interface. At the top left is the Springer logo. Below it is a search bar with the text "Search" and a magnifying glass icon. A navigation menu includes "Home", "Subjects", "Services", "Products", "Springer Shop", and "About us". Social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, Google+, and a plus sign are on the right. A breadcrumb trail shows "Affiliation" as the current page. The main heading is "Choose Your Affiliation" with a "BACK" button. A paragraph explains institutional agreements and provides the URL springer.com/springer-compact. A note advises searching by city or acronym if the university is not found. The form section, titled "Your University / Institution", contains a search input field with the placeholder text "Search affiliation / institution (type at least 2 characters)" and a "CONTINUE" button.

CC BY: This licence allows readers to copy, distribute and transmit the Article as long as it is attributed back to the author. Readers are permitted to alter, transform or build upon the Article, and to use the Article for commercial purposes. Please read the full licence for further details at - <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>

- 1. Publication

Springer Nature (the 'Licensee') will consider publishing this article (including any supplementary information and graphic elements therein (e.g. illustrations, charts, moving images) (the 'Article'), including granting readers rights to use the Article on an open access basis under the terms of the selected Creative Commons licence. Headings are for convenience only.
- 2. Grant of Rights

Subject to editorial acceptance of the Article, it will be published under the Creative Commons licence as set out above. In consideration of the Licensee evaluating the Article for publication, the Author(s) grant the Licensee a non-exclusive, irrevocable and sub-licensable right, unlimited in time and territory, to copy-edit, reproduce, publish, distribute, transmit, make available and store the Article, including abstracts thereof, in all forms of media of expression now known or developed in the future, including pre- and reprints, translations, photographic reproductions and extensions. Furthermore, to enable additional publishing services, such as promotion of the Article, the Author(s) grant the Licensee the right to use the Article (including any graphic elements on a stand-alone basis) in whole or in part in electronic form, such as for display in databases or data networks (e.g. the Internet), or for print or download to stationary or portable devices. This includes interactive and multimedia use as well as posting the Article in full or in part on social media, and the right to alter the Article to the extent necessary for such use. Author(s) grant to Licensee the right to re-license Article metadata without restriction, including but not limited to author, name title, abstract, citation, references, keywords and any additional information as determined by Licensee.
- 3. Self-Archiving

Author(s) are permitted to self-archive a pre-print and an author's accepted manuscript version of their Article.

 - a pre-print is the author's version of the Article before peer-review has taken place ("Pre-Print"). Prior to acceptance for publication, Author(s) retain the right to make a Pre-Print of their Article available on any of the following: their own personal, self- maintained website; a legally compliant, non-commercial pre-print server such as but not limited to arXiv and bioRxiv. Once the Article has been published, the Author(s) should update the acknowledgement and provide a link to the definitive version on the publisher's website: "This is a pre-print of an article published in [insert journal title]. The final authenticated version is available online at: [https://doi.org/\[insert DOI\]](https://doi.org/[insert DOI])".
